Applicants whose videos do not comply with the aforementioned requirements will not be eligible for pre-selection.

Recommendations

- Choose videos that focus on you within the first fifteen seconds
- The videos should start at a time you believe represents your conducting well
- Eliminate applause, the orchestra tuning up, greetings, etc. from the videos
- Consideration will be given to the audio quality of the excerpts allowing the sections of the orchestra and the exchanges between the musicians and the conductor to be heard
- It is not obligatory to make two videos of 5 minutes each. You can choose to present a longer concert video (for example, 7 minutes) and a shorter rehearsal video (for example, 3 minutes). The total time of the two videos must not exceed 10 minutes.
